The Social Change 2.0 AI Coach integrates social change acumen with AI to enable large-scale social impact.

It empowers change-makers in the civic, private and public sectors to access an affordable high-quality social transformation framework to increase their societal impact effectiveness.

Empowerment Institute has been a pioneer and global leader in second order change for four decades. Kiiren AI has developed “Knowledge AI” to further deep and rapid transformative change. Their partnership enables a breakthrough in accelerating corporate and social innovation.

The Business as a Force for Good initiative applies the Social Change 2.0 AI Coach to build the social impact capacity of a business. It does this by simultaneously enhancing the well being of a company’s employees, community and the world. It is built around a transformative process, the Peace Game, that empowers a company to become an agent of change and increase its ability to do good better.
